

We provide legal advice on issues involving all types of litigation both in federal and state lower- and higher-court and in arbitration proceedings.

Our lawyers are fully qualified to analyze every issue from different perspectives and to propose creative and practical solutions to suit each client's needs.

Campos Mello also works in dispute prevention, mainly through mediation, seeking to resolve conflicts before any lawsuit or arbitration proceeding is initiated.

Our experienced team works in situations covered by the rules of major Brazilian and international arbitration institutions. CMA's specialized legal services are oriented towards proactive and preventive client representation so as to achieve the best possible litigation and arbitration results.

Our activities encompass a wide range of services, mainly:

- Corporate matters and disputes;
- Infrastructure and construction issues;
- Disputes involving contracts and obligations;
- Consumer law issues;
- Civil liability issues;
- Real estate issues;
- Regulatory and public law issues;
- Digital law issues;
- Product Liability;
- Banking issues;
- Judicial debt collection;
- Class actions;
- Pre-litigation issues, involving the analysis of the client's strengths and sensitivities and the definition of strategies;

- Probate and Wills;
- Ratification and execution in Brazil of foreign arbitration awards and drafting contracts and dispute resolution clauses.
