

Our in-depth knowledge of the real estate industry allows us to better understand our client's needs and to propose creative and secure legal solutions for their real estate investments and projects.

At CMA, we are able to offer a complete and accurate analysis of potential legal structures for the development of real estate projects in various industries: construction and infrastructure, hospitality and leisure, real estate development and land subdivision, implementation of industrial plants and logistics projects, among others. Our team provides full services encompassing the most varied real estate operations, such as:

- Structuring highly complex real estate projects, developments, condominiums and subdivisions (urban or rural);
- Structuring shopping malls, hotel complexes, amusement parks and leisure and entertainment projects;
- Drafting lease, built-to-suit, sale and lease back, surface rights and construction contracts;
- Drafting sale, exchange, accord and satisfaction, mortgage, fiduciary sale of real estate given in collateral and surface right and other instruments;
- Performing real estate due diligences;
- Structuring joint ventures and consortia for real estate transactions;
- Preparing legal reports and opinions on the most diverse real estate issues;
- Development of real estate receivables securitization transactions, issuance of property-backed bonds and creation of real estate investment funds.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

Our performance has earned accolades from major publications that rank law firms and lawyers based on client opinion:

Leading firm in Real Estate Law

- Chambers Latin America: 2009, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021

- Leaders League: 2019 and 2020

Their lawyers are creative and offer highly sophisticated solutions to our problems. We also appreciate their business-oriented approach and their experience working with large corporations.

Chambers Latin America

The team impresses with the technicality it manages to bring to the table in terms of real estate and registration law without neglecting the objectivity that negotiation requires.

The Legal 500

The department lawyers have a remarkable ability to reconcile technical knowledge with a business sense, evaluating the matters put under consultation in depth and at the same time offering precise, concise recommendations, with the clarity and objectivity that a competitive business requires.
