

Multidisciplinary, innovative and sophisticated advice on the broadest range of merger and acquisitions transactions.

We boast strong experience in the widest range of mergers and acquisitions (M&A) transactions involving public and privately-held companies, both Brazilian and foreign, including the sale and acquisition of ownership interests and other assets, inbound and outbound investments and corporate restructuring. Our highly-specialized team has extensive experience in highly complex transactions in numerous industries.

Acting in synergy with other departments in the firm so as to always provide multidisciplinary, comprehensive, innovative and sophisticated services, we support our clients throughout their negotiations and operations. We benefit from the experience Campos Mello Advogados accumulated over its 40 years of existence to participate in the widest range of transactions in the country, including some of the most significant transactions announced.
